How many times have you and your friends asked one another these questions without ever coming up with any good answers? Your girlfriends just tell you what you want to hear. At the end of the day, the only person who can give you insight into man problems is—that's right—a man! But guys have hidden agendas. What guy would give up all his dating advantages by spilling the goods? Steve Santagati would. A self-confessed serial dater and Bad Boy, Steve is telling all for the benefit of womankind. Every guy is at least part Bad Boy, and in The Manual, this prime specimen reveals what every woman needs to know to counter Bad Boy tactics, both amateur and professional. Steve is never condescending or callous, but honest, perceptive, and street-smart. His guidance is straightforward and his insights are dead-on, giving women tools they can immediately put to work. Discover what you may not want to know but need to know about: •The Heart of the Bad Boy (i.e., the nature of the beast) •The Male Mind: how he sees you and how you can make this work to your advantage •Guys on the Hunt: the male modus operandi, from the grocery store to Home Depot •When Boy Meets Girl: how to handle dating, from flirting to “sext” messaging to learning his weaknesses •Mating: so you’ve got him . . . should you keep him? Why learn from a Bad Boy instead of, say, a psychologist? Because there’s no replacement for “in the field” experience. You’ll benefit from (and laugh at) stories of real things Steve has done in relationships with women as well as of women turning the tables on him when he least expected it. The book also includes a question-and-answer section, in which Steve explores some of the toughest dating issues. To understand Steve is to understand the Bad Boy, and that will take you a long way in understanding all men. Find out how much more fun dating can be when you get the upper hand on Bad Boys . . . for good. Help your students think through how their faith should influence their dating habits. The Highway Visual Curriculum gives you compelling and entertaining video segments to encourage conversations and learning The smart woman's guide to dating and relating To get into a man's heart, you have to get into his head. With this insider's guide to evaluating a man, Caroline Presno, Ed.D., P.C.C. teaches women how to apply psychotherapists' tricks of the trade to finding Mr. Right. Caroline Presno has developed systematic ways to ‘profile’ a man for his degree of commitment readiness, his aptitude for love and intimacy, his chance of lying, or being unfaithful, his tendency toward big, bad personality problems like narcissism and paranoia, and his ability to fulfill his potential. Profiling Your Date answers the pressing questions every woman has: 'What type of man should I be looking for? Who should I steer clear from? Is this a healthy relationship for me to be in right now? Is there a better relationship out there for me?' Profiling Your Date helps you to dissect his behavior and probe his thinking to reveal red flags that indicate it is time to move on. For example: * He is quick to acknowledge everyone else's flaws, but not his own. * He needs constant excitement and gets bored easily - he will eventually get bored with you. *He puts your relationship on fast-forward and isolates you from your family and friends. *He calls you at the last minute, spends a lot of time out with the boys, and lets you pursue him more than he pursues you. Whether you are in love or looking for love, you can learn who to 'profile' into your life, and who to 'profile' out. Caroline Presno will show you how.

CAROLINE PRESNO, Ed.D., P.C.C. is a psychotherapist as well as a doctor of education. She has honed her profiling techniques through academic research, clinical experience, and her own always-exciting dates – which led her to her "one." She can be heard weekly as "Dr. Caroline" on the Clear Channel network. Technically, a person is considered a senior citizen when they reach the age of 65. However, that's not always the way the general public feels – especially those who have hit the age of 50. To some people, this might send them into spasms of denial. After all, how can you be 60 when you still feel 30 in your mind? But, really, that's a good way to think. It's been said many, many times that age is simply a number – it's a state of mind how old you actually are! If you're over 50 years old, you've likely heard many times by now that you're over the hill. What started this rumor that once you've reached the middle of your life, it's all downhill from there? Today's baby-boomers will stop at nothing to put an end to this rumor. They'll prove that the over 50 crowd is stronger and smarter than ever. Those over age 50 are more physically active than ever. Many have a decent amount of disposable income. They are politically active, culturally motivated and in tune with modern trends. Mark Twain once said "Age is an issue of mind over matter. If you don't mind, it doesn't matter." Truer words, I think, have never been spoken! So you're a senior citizen – so what! Life doesn't have to be relegated to planting flowers and rocking on your front porch talking about the good old days. Believe me; the good old days are just starting! Dating today can seem like Alice's tumble down the rabbit hole into Wonderland. Whether starting out or starting again, women face the difficult task of sorting through the good (guy), the bad (boy) and the ugly (morning after) in their search for Mr. Right. Here, giving hope to smart single women everywhere is Amy DeZellar, who bravely dedicated two years of her life to debunking common dating myths and documenting 50 of her dates. She's gone wine-tasting with Indentured Cats, a blind date who also happened to be blind; been accosted in a cornfield by Glitter Ball, a lounge musician who grew up with the Beatles; and found her artistic sentiments at odds with her desire for financial security when she simultaneously got involved with a painter named Harry Potter and a NASA super-computer designer named Teflon, all in her quest to chronicle the dating life of a regular girl and maybe even find true love. Each of the 50 chapters is dedicated to a different date, and includes the kinds of tips and sharp observations that only someone on the front lines can offer. Get ready to laugh, cry, and commiserate with Amy--and learn, as she did, a few things about finding the perfect man. Dive into Lisa Childs's new series, Liaisons International, kicking off with a story of matchmaking, seduction and secret identities! Billionaire Matteo Rinaldi needs a date to his sister's gallery opening to stop her from setting him up with women only interested in money. So he accepts a matchmaker's offer to find his supposedly perfect date. "Savannah" is everything he could want: fun, smart and their connection is off the charts. What started as a game becomes the best night of his life—until he wakes to an empty bed. And she never even told him her last name... Because "Savannah" is Blair Snyder, a former air force pilot who flies private jets for the company she founded. She's been burned by guys who couldn't handle her as she is: tough and determined. Their date was too good to be true, so she left. When a client refuses to let a woman fly his plane, she shows up in disguise, planning to prove the jerk wrong—and the client turns out to be Matteo. Can she keep her hands off him? Temptation may be too much for either of them to resist...even with a mountain of secrets between them.

Dating 911 is based on real-life interviews and experiences in internet dating. Written by a career police chief, it offers solid tips on what to do - and what not to do, when meeting someone online. If you, or anyone you know, is involved in computer match making - THIS IS THE BOOK TO READ. In the post 9-11 world, everyone needs to be made aware of the dangers that lurk within their own online experiences. From identity theft, to personal safety, this book covers all aspects of meeting someone on the internet, and doing it safely. Written in an entertaining and easily readable format, you will learn the tricks of the trade. "Police Notes" are added at the end of every chapter to concisely summarize the key points that the reader needs. Get into the mind of the cyber-net addict and how the world of internet relationships can be dangerous and compulsive. This cyber-cop tells all about his own personal experiences and how to avoid the pitfalls of the online-world. We Could Have Had A Great Date If It Weren't For You goes beyond typical books for singles by offering men and women a way to alter attitudes and perspectives on dating rather than just presenting a set of "one size fits all" rules. It is unique in accepting the legitimacy of all kinds of single relationships from dating nobody, to dating married people, to long-term committed relationships. In doing so it offers single people the opportunity to enjoy dating for the first time, respect themselves and others in the dating dance, and learn about the dating plan that is most relevant to them at a particular time. If the desire is to break free of old habits and ideas that have not proven successful, and turn dating into pleasure rather than pain, then this is the one book about dating you need to read. After a row of wrong relationships, we close ourselves from inside, and stop believing that somewhere there is a right man for us. “All decent men are already taken, I’m too old, I have a lot of problems and I have no luck in love.” All these are just excuses in order to avoid concrete actions. Conceptions that impede you to attract your right match. Start thinking that any experience lived in the past was just a training stage on the route to the right man. Even the darkest experience occurred because of different reasons, but only to “purify” the route to the most wonderful meeting of your life – meeting with the right man. Everybody wants to meet his other half. A man thinking and feeling like you, attached to you and defending your interests that accepts your way of life with all weak points and the most important – sharing your love feelings. Despite everything, you consider yourself a wonderful woman, being ready to invest a lot in a relationship, but there is something that impedes your forces of attraction to make a big impact on a man. This “Something” is nobody but yourself! In fact, despite your fervent desire to meet the right man, you’re the one to have done everything to stop him appear in your life. Your relationship with a man often reflects the relationship with your inner side. You’re staying single without any serious reason for too much time! Change your destiny! Put yourself in action! The appropriate man is not far from you, but he won’t come directly at your gates. Inside this self-help book you’ll discover:

Couple · Getting To Know A Man Can Be The Way Of Getting To Know Yourself · A Single Woman: How To Be Happy And Accomplished Looking for Love in All the Wrong Places? Here's How to End the Search! Are you stuck in a revolving door of bad dates? Or maybe you've given up on finding a meaningful relationship altogether. According to dating experts David Coleman and Richard Doyle, it doesn't have to be that way. You can have that happy, healthy relationship you've been looking for. With eye-opening exercises, quizzes, and other self-assessment tools, the authors show you how to pinpoint specific aspects of your personality that have caused you to pick poorly, remain in bad relationships, or sabotage good ones. Once you understand the reasons why you choose a certain type of person, you can focus on how to choose and attract the right person for you. Inside, you'll learn how to avoid: Bad Picks · The Girdle—strives to control you · The Dog Catcher—flees at the first sign of commitment · The Ferrari—requires high maintenance Bad Kissers · The Hoover—sucks out fillings, tongue—anything · Niagara Falls—produces enough liquid for a regatta · The Puppy—licks you all over your face Bad Break-ups · The Western Union—ends relationship by letter, note, or e-mail · The Freezer—turns from warm and caring to cold and callous · The Fade Away—lets the relationship fade by avoiding conflict

“Insightful and enjoyable. You'll never approach your relationships the same way again.”—Lynn Miller (aka Meg Lacey), President of Parke Media and novelist for Harlequin Books

Cindy Chupack takes a hilarious look at love, dating, and not dating in this witty, truthful and utterly charming book. Tackling topics such as "relationship reruns" (a sobering stage when you realize that the men you meet are basically repeats of the men you've already dated) and "relocationships" (the kind of relationship that necessitates moving to a place where you would never consider living), Dispatches from the Dating Front Lines is as reassuring as that late-night post-date phone call to a best friend. It says: you may be single, but you are not alone. Praise for The Between Boyfriends Book: A Collection of Cautiously Hopeful Essays "Oh, how I love this book! I laughed out loud again and again. It hits such an intimate and true chord, it's painful actually, how insightful Cindy Chupack is. Every woman who's been through the dating miasma must read it." - Julia Sweeney "Cindy Chupack is funny about single. Very funny. And smart. And sympathetic. And empathetic. And helpful. And the stories in this book are really horrible in a great way." - Delia Ephron "Go on a date," she said. "You'll love it," she said. She was wrong! It had been one year, two months and seventeen days since my last date. So my best friend Abby decided to sign me up for a dating app. She guaranteed that she could get me the best date of my life within one week. I didn't really want to do it, but I figured what did I have to lose? Turns out that I had: 1. $500 2. My dignity 3. My patience and 4. My innocence to lose OK, so I didn't really have my innocence to lose, but believe you me, Jack Morrison was my worst date ever. And I've been on a lot of bad dates. Trust me when I say that that was the longest ten hours and 33 minutes of my life. I never wanted to see or speak to him again. But it turns out you don't always get what you want in life, because Jack showed up the very next day at a family gathering I was attending as a fake plus one. As you can imagine that was a real pickle, Jack wanted to know why I went on a date with him when I'm dating someone else. But he can't know the whole complicated truth of the matter. I'm in a fake relationship and now I'm being blackmailed by the worst date ever. That's not even the worst part. I decided to log onto this new app called "confession board" to seek some advice, but it turns out Jack Morrison is absolutely everywhere and he's not going to leave me alone until I submit to his demands. For the men who struggle with dating, I have great news You are not alone. Fifty percent of all single men have not been on a date in the last two years. Other men date occasionally, but never enjoy the success they crave. Still others are newly divorced and have re-entered the intimidating single world for the first time since the advent of online dating. The truth is there are a lot of lonely men out there. This book can help:

- Men who are entering the online dating world for the first time
- As a refresher course for guys who have tried online dating but not yet cracked the code
- Men who have enjoyed some success with dating, but feel there is still something missing - taking their dating to the next level or finding that one special woman

“This book is written in a funny and down to earth style. The author reveals different dating scenarios that he went through in his personal life in order to caution men on what they might encounter during a date...He gives insights on the proper way of landing dates and keeping them...” - Susana Pena for Readers' Favorite “This book is a “MUST READ” for any guy or girl that is an Online Dater. It will help you write a funny and intelligent bio, gain self-confidence for online dating, communicate effectively with a girl...” - Linda, author of “The Top 10 Things People Lie about on Online Dating Sites and Why” Order up...a delicious new dating attitude! Whether you're convinced all the good guys are taken, sick of kissing frogs, or simply feeling cursed by Cupid, Tristan and Todd, irrepressible best friends and dating aficionados, will teach you how to rock a stellar new outlook on hooking up, dating and finding your "main course," while filling your calendar (and plate) with loads of tantalizing men. Menu Dating includes innovative new strategies for: *Cleansing your palette by throwing out your stale dating philosophies and flirting phobias *Adopting the laidback, positive attitude of someone who knows there's no such thing as a bad date—just a veritable tapas bar of flavorful experiences and lessons. *Collecting and taste testing tons of different man candidates (manditates!)...even the ones you thought you'd never date *Sexcapading, booty calling and practicing the art of the one-night stand (and yes, every girl should have at least one) *Avoiding the pitfalls and pratfalls of dating multiple men at the same time

Menu Dating will show you how dating a rotating roster of different men without a fixation on settling down is actually the secret to finding the relationship you deserve. You'll discern your wants from your needs, your nice-to-haves from your dealbreakers...not to mention, have some seriously delicious fun along the way to meeting your "main course" man. Whether you've just started attending the singles ward, been at the dating game for years, or know someone who desperately wants to find true love, Fearless Dating is an essential guide for anyone who wants a happy, eternal marriage. Authors Chris and Julia Deaver and Don McCartney use wisdom from the scriptures, counsel from prophets and apostles, and the experiences of dozens of LDS singles to offer priceless advice on topics ranging from planning and goal setting to honest communication, providing useful tips and information for all who seek the blessing of eternal marriage in their lives. Rogers interviews college-aged girls to determine what constitutes a bad date. She finds that too much unsolicited physical contact and lack of courtesy and etiquette qualify a date as "bad." Rogers especially focuses on a particular aspect of dating that is unique to Brigham Young University, in which boys returning from two-year proselytizing missions try to adjust to the dating scene and oftentimes make social mistakes. Rogers finds that dates with returned missionaries will be classified as "bad" dates if the missionary talks too much about his mission, treating the date like a checklist, or planning overly typical or uncomfortably creative dates. Rogers concludes that her interviewees are too picky and expect too much immediate romance out of love. People are criticizing online dating like crazy but dating websites don't tell you that. For a lot of people, it's a big waste of money and time. For a lot of women, it's like fake flattery. A new female joins a dating website. All of a sudden, she's got 100 e-mails from guys interested in her but she doesn't know that these guys do this to every new female member. She thinks they're interested in her because of what she said in her profile and how she looks. Let's say she goes on 50 dates. Forty eight will be frogs or no match. The guy she feels comfortable with might live three thousand miles away. It's not just that. It's the myth that if you post a profile up, love is just around the corner. You still gotta deal with the real world, meet someone face to face and start a real relationship. There's another thing too. Your profile is up there for anyone to steal and put on youtube or to go public with it if you become a politician or famous in some way. From the creators of the popular online dating site HowAboutWe.com comes the definitive guide for navigating the modern dating world. The single woman is having a moment. In the worlds of work, personal finances, and education, women are more successful than ever before. When it comes to dating, they're happy to take their time exploring lots of different relationships before deciding if they want to settle down. Women today, like the generations of women before them, want to fall in love. But they want it to happen organically, at its own pace, and with the right person. Rather than listing a set of "rules," Modern Dating offers advice on modern challenges, like how to send a relatively unembarrassing sext, how to create a failproof first date idea, and how to make sure you're getting into a relationship for the right reasons. Instead of telling you How to Win a Husband in Just 3 Easy Steps!, it will gently guide you through all the triumphs and pitfalls of what dating is actually like, from one-night stands, to confusing texts and emails, to your first online date. Frank, funny, and totally relatable, this is a book that really gets at how women are dating today—the ideal travel companion for your dating life. The only rule is that there are no rules, but this book will be there for guidance, or just for laughs, every step of the way. Strong-willed Elena Ashton has had consistently bad dating luck since her Big Split and is beginning to believe someone has cursed her as she encounters bad date after bad date and experiences a few bad boyfriends. Life rolls on as she copes with bad dates, worse boyfriends, life changes, and seeing The Ex again. Thinking it cannot get much worse, she decides to give online dating a try because she figures it can't be worse than other ways of meeting people and see what happens. Jaw-dropping emails, ridiculous ultimatums, and a first date that is worthy of the Worst Date EVER pepper this tale of a single woman reaffirming why she is single to begin with. This book is ideal for people who are tired of the standard, "Someday my prince will come" genre of chick lit, "How to Suck at Dating" offers an entertaining tale that is satisfyingly different in outlook, outcome, and tone. Anna York reinvents the genre, or at least creates a subgenre that offers more of a feminist perspective on dating with a solid mix of optimism, cynicism, slightly bawdy humor, and vicious sarcasm with a unique bite. York's voice is one that needs to be heard above the din of those who (wrongly) believe that a woman MUST need to be involved in a romantic relationship to be happy. "How to Suck At Dating..." espouses the philosophy that sometimes it's better to be alone than to settle. In the near-future, concern about an increasingly workaholic corporate culture and the falling birthrate causes the government of one metropolis to institute GoDate, a city-wide summer dating program for people of a certain age. Players are sent on a series of ten different dates, during which they are matched with potential love interests via algorithms. Petra, a 24-year-old highly introverted graphic designer, isn’t sure she’s ready for a relationship, but isn’t entirely happy with singleness either. Encouraged by her co-workers and driven by a strong desire not to live with regret, she decides to participate in GoDate for the very first time. But as GoDate takes her on all manner of dates—both good and bad—Petra is forced to question what it is she actually wants. Not Another Bad Date is a deliciously romantic rom-com from New York Times bestseller Rachel Gibson - perfect for fans of Jill Shalvis, Jo Watson and Christina Lauren. They say that opposites attract...which might explain why sexy, successful Adele Harris is such a loser-magnet! Frankly, she attracts so many weirdos and nut-jobs that she's beginning to think that she's cursed. And it's about to get worse. When Adele heads home to Cedar Creek, Texas, she runs into her first-ever bad date - the delicious Zach - and it seems he wants a second chance. Like she'd ever let him (big ol' drop-dead-gorgeous him) near her heart again. Uh-huh. No way. Ain't never gonna happen... Check out the rest of Rachel's addictive titles, including Sex, Lies and Online Dating, I'm In No Mood For Love and Tangled Up In You. Vancouver's downtown East-side neighborhood, the poorest postal code in Canada, is a ten-block compound of poverty, pain, and despair in a sparkling, healthy, rich city. In the parlance of the street, this area is known as Low Track, where drug-addicted prostitutes barely sustain themselves and their habit by selling their bodies. Suspended in the miasma of smoke and despair and the stench that hangs over these mean streets is the mystery of thirty-one Low Track prostitutes who appear to have vanished over the past few years, without a trace. Theories abound about serial killers and murderous freighter crews, while some speculate that some of the women shook their drug habit and just walked away from the life. In Trevor Greene's illuminating book, Bad Date: The Lost Girls of Vancouver's Low Track, he writes about this true-life mystery. Having interviewed the families of the missing women and the police involved in the case, he comes up with some possible explanations of what might have happened. There are no bodies, no eyewitnesses, and no clues. Just a void where thirty-one women once were, families and friends left behind, and a mystery that has the women still working Low Track watching their backs and fearing the night. Dating Diva Adventures begins with three BFFs in tow, and they created an online dating profile for Lori with a well-known social networking site. After over 3,286 hits in thirty days, Lori set out on a journey of self-discovery in hopes to learn about human behavior, her needs, her desires, and basic human interaction while on the quest for true love. During this process of first dates, she met some incredible individuals and learned about common dating faux pas and areas of opportunity that we all have. The book, Dating Diva Adventures is meant to be lighthearted, fun, and introspective. It is not about the "hunt for a man," nor is it about marriage or finding a rich sugar daddy. Lori says, she'll leave that to the experts! She's a woman of substance, has her own financial means, and she doesn't need a man for that, nor do you! To learn more about the author visit, www.lorilemongeshay.com If you're looking for a fun Saturday night date or a happily-ever-after mate, this is the guide for you. Whether you're young and haven't dated much or older and have been out of circulation so long you've forgotten how to flirt, dating can be intimidating. Author Dr. Joy Browne, America's favorite psychologist, demystifies the whole dating process, from getting a date, plotting the place, and having a great time (or dealing with dud dates) to moving beyond a first date, playing it safe, and how sex can impact a budding relationship. In this new edition, Dr. Joy offers updated guidance on how to find a date, covering "speed dating," Internet dating services, and singles nights at grocery stores and other unexpected places. She delivers fresh pointers on a whole host of topics, including:

- Building your confidence and polishing your social self
- Determining if you're really ready to date
- How to meet and approach Mr. or Ms. Intriguing
- Where to go, what to do, what to wear, and what to avoid on the first date
- Taboo subjects, such as your ex, sex, politics, and religion
- Cell phone and e-mail etiquette
- Moving from dating to a successful relationship and the four stages of attachment
- Breaking up (just in case Mr. or Ms. Right wasn't) and avoiding pity parties and pitfalls
- The dos and don'ts of Internet dating

Dr. Joy Browne's nationally syndicated daily radio show is the longest running program of its kind. Dr. Joy has won numerous awards for her work including the American Psychological Association's President's Award and the Talkers Magazine award for Best Female Talk Show Host (two years in a row). It gives you worksheets to help you objectively analyze your date expectations and evaluate a relationship. Packed with real-world wisdom, confidence boosters, and a dash of humor, this is the guide to help you get out of exile, get into dating, and perhaps even get into a meaningful relationship.

- How many people are walking through the world convinced that they have to settle?
- How many people are being treated badly because they think they don't tick desirable boxes?
- What would happen if you didn't limit yourself

by seeing yourself as a bunch of labels, and instead saw yourself as a catch? • How fun would it be to be single without questioning your loveability, to date without taking rejection personally, and to have sex without hating your body? Nearly every question life coach and queen of boundaries Michelle Elman is asked relates to one subject: dating. Including unravelling myths about single life, changing your dating mindset, dealing with ghosting, text etiquette and taking relationships offline, The Selfish Romantic will teach you how to empower your love life like never before. Combining Michelle's expertise in boundaries and body positivity, this is your guide to navigating the modern dating landscape. The collective consciousness in the modern dating culture is that it is hard. Singles who hold themselves back from dating are often plagued with self-sabotaging behaviors driven by fear of rejection, awkward encounters, or heartbreak. The good news is that we can all learn to be great daters who embrace the natural chemistry that comes with meeting new people. In a practical dating guide, seasoned matchmaker and date coach Jolene Beaton shares a step-by-step approach on how to identify behaviors that often show up on a date, and then shift the mindset to one that better supports meeting new people and building healthy romantic relationships. Through her wisdom, personal stories, tools, and encouragement to look deep within for the answers, Beaton not only offers insight into the mechanics of dating and the lost art of seduction as well as the barriers and excuses that hijack love, but also how to respond to tough questions without falling into the TMI trap, overcome resistance to change, and ultimately date with integrity and compassion while remaining unattached to the outcome. Dating Explained shares insight, stories, tools, and encouragement that help singles see themselves more clearly in the dating world and create healthy romantic relationships beginning with the first date. "The perfect fun-filled escape from reality! Kate O'Keeffe at her delightful best!" - Bestselling author Whitney Dineen

Three friends form the No More Bad Dates Pact: stop dating the wrong guys and start dating the right ones - weirdos and jerks need not apply. Twenty-five-year-old Sophie McCarthy's career is virtually nonexistent, her family expects her to "do something important" with her life, and she's totally sick of dating the wrong guys: the self-absorbed, the arrogant, the borderline criminally insane. After she's unceremoniously dumped during the vows at her boss's wedding, she and her two equally disappointed-in-love best friends agree to help each other find decent guys to date. Together, they form the No More Bad Dates Pact: stop dating the wrong guy and start dating the right ones-weirdos and jerks need not apply. When Sophie's roommate Jason Christie-a.k.a. doctor-in-training and serial nurse-dater-joins the pact, he vows to weed out the bad ones for her. But with his rejection of every guy Sophie meets, she begins to wonder if he's got an ulterior motive. And anyway, why does she always have so much more fun with Jason than with the guys she's actually trying to date? While desperately seeking her "happy for now," could Sophie stumble into her "happily ever after?"

You're no idiot, of course. You know how confusing dating can be. And whether you've got first-date jitters or first-kiss fears, you're just not sure how to deal. But dating doesn't have to be so difficult-all you need are a few tips on how to put your best self forward!

The Complete Idiot's Guide® to Dating for Teens can show you how to:

- * Figure out the do's and don'ts of dating etiquette-from "Who pays for what?" to "When should I call?"
- * Let someone know you're into them.
- * Deal with your parents if they don't like who you're dating.
- * Know if you're ready to go steady.
- * Pick fun stuff to do on a date.
- * Handle a breakup.

Everybody has got a love or sex problem, even loners because they sometimes feel lonely or can't get aroused to pleasure themselves. If you feel that your relationship doesn't have the passion that it once did like in romance movies, it's normal because romantic love is a drug-like release of hormones that wear off. I've been in romantic love. It always wore off but my love for pets always stayed strong. When you fall in love, there is an initial spray of the hormones oxytocin and PEA. They wear off naturally. With animals, the love stays because they're innocent. People have egos and they think. There is always a potential for disrespect and conflict. People get tired of each other and they see attractive people everywhere, some of whom are interested in them.

The 94 volumes on love and sex problems are as follows:

- Volume 1. Thinking about Love Problems
- Volume 2. Feel Dreamy Love Through Love Song Lyrics
