Heartwarming Historical Fiction Set at the Turn of the Century Sadie Sillsby works as the assistant to the matron at the Raystown Home for Orphan and Friendless Children and dreams of the day she'll marry her beau, Blaine. But when the matron surprises everyone by announcing her own engagement, Sadie is suddenly next in line for the job. For a young woman who was once an orphan herself, a shot at such an esteemed position is a wish come true. But the matron of the Home cannot be married. Is Sadie willing to give up her dreams of a life with Blaine and a family of her own? Is she prepared to forgo daily involvement with the children as she instead manages the financial, legal, and logistical aspects of the orphanage? And when it's revealed that the Home is spending a lot more money than it's taking in, can Sadie turn things around before the place is forced to close forever? "Take My Heart . . . for Dinner" is the first novel of the Enchanted Worlds trilogy. An unexpected chain of events pull Ben, a high school student from a prosperous family in New York, out of his habitual surrounding and throws him into a terrifying yet fascinating world filled with uncertainty and adventure. The plot of the book is not just the enthralling story about the adventures of a young man who gets sucked into a whirlpool of events; it is also an attempt to lift the veil of mystery from an unacquainted society, digging deep into the heart of Terra Incognita. This coming-of-age book about a young boy is intended for a wide range of readers as it explores history, social and cultural customs, and traditions of an ethnic minority, unravelling fascinating aspects of a society unknown to civilized men. A Heart For Imbabura: The Story of Evelyn Rychner is about persecution, romance, celebration—of the life and ministry of Evelyn Rychner, missionary to Ecuador, has it all. In spite of danger, hostility and indifference, God finally broke through in Imbabura Province. "Slowly and deliberately Evelyn shoved the blazer into first gear and edged it forward, bodies against bumper; man against metal. Bloodshot eyes flashed hatred. Fists and clubs pummeled the vehicle. Evelyn tightened her grip on the steering wheel. With eyes locked on some point directly ahead, she pushed through the crowd and hurried on up the lonely road. A sigh of relief and a prayer of thanksgiving escaped her lips as she finally turned into the Mission compound. It had been a close call, and so near home, too. There had been too many close calls lately." Today, over 8000 Otavalan Indian believers in 20 churches lift up the Name of the Risen Christ in the Heart of Imbabura. They are living testimony to the faithfulness and commitment of some of God's choicest servants, among them Evelyn Rychner.

Islam, gentrification, AIDS, and multiculturalism: Where do we face these realities? A few years ago, it was in the city. But today, many city dwellers are moving to the suburbs, either by choice or because of circumstances beyond their control. And this shift is changing both the urban and suburban landscape. With this shift in mind, editors John Fuder and Noel Castellanos have gathered together a team of experts to help you minister effectively in both the urban and suburban context. Divided into four sections--Critical Issues, Church-Planting Models, Ministering to Suburban Needs, and Para-Church Ministries--A Heart for the Community is a rich resource designed to help you do ministry today. Discover the Life-Changing Relevance of the Old Testament Developing a Heart for God There are some things in this life that always seem to be in high demand but short supply. Wisdom is one of them. But struggling through the difficulties is much more unbearable. Learn, through true events, how to overcome life's hardest moments through God's Word. Paralleled with the natural stages of grief, find grace to bear the burden in the day to day. Astrid Bjorklund is on the Red Bud Indian Reservation in South Dakota trying to stop the horrific epidemic that is ravaging the tribe. The elders are suspicious of her, but when they see some of their people beginning to recover, they allow Astrid to continue caring for the sick and to train others to help. She is overwhelmed by this need so close to home and wonders if this is the mission field God has planned for her. Joshua Landsverk wants to repair his broken relationship with Astrid, but he is opposed to her present work and refuses to tell her why. When he encounters unexpected adversity, a surprising act of kindness brings healing to the grievous wrong inflicted years ago. Will it be enough to bring Joshua and Astrid together again? From My Heart For You, is a short collection of Christian poetry. My prayer while working on this book, was that people from all walks of life will be able to spiritually connect with the collection. The last few pages of this book will allow each reader some time for self reflection. I suggest journaling in a quiet place where you are able to feel God's presence and have alone time with him. Answer the questions truthfully and begin to pray on the answers that you may not be pleased with. Give thanks as well for those answers which you are proud of. We must remember to give thanks even during times of difficulty and not just when things are going well for us. Often times when we initially become saved, no one prepares us fully for the reality that our new found faith will be a journey. The Bible says in Psalms 34:19 that the righteous will face many troubles. The excellent news is that it goes on to say that the Lord will rescue us from each and every one! I found many closed opportunities as I was brought up. I was not supposed to go an extra mile into digging deeper in my life but there are a number of my past experiences that motivated me to serve humanitarian work. Therefore, due to this experience I realized that every person in life needs an angel to be inspired to achieve his or her goals. One angel to reveal to you how special and precious you're. A guardian angel to lead, encourage and lift you up when you fall. That angel comes with a heart of helping you serve your purpose on earth. You need a person who understands you; you can become a person you were created to be. One person who celebrates you. A person who comes to you with positive and loving words in your life. That is the divine connection of the ANGEL from God. God created every human with a purpose and most times it's a calling that he makes. He added ingredients that will help to support you and your neighbors that's why he suggested that we love each other. We all go through different trials in this life, but thank God this is not our final destination. God wants us to open our hearts to the things of His Kingdom. Once we open our hearts and allow God to do a new work in us we will become great in the Kingdom of God. Once we open our hearts change will take place, deliverance can take place, sin can be overcome in our life and God's principles and His way of doing things will come forth out of our spirit. That is when the Kingdom of God can be lifted up and we can begin to let go of sin and walk in our deliverance right into the KINGDOM OF GOD.

Coming of age on the Oregon Trail, Lovisa King finds the strength to help her family survive death, sickness, and the "Terrible Trail" on their journey to the Oregon Territory. Reprint. In this Spirit-inspired teaching respected scholar and theologian R. T. Kendall uses Jesus's parable of the ten virgins to describe the condition of the church in the last days. Many Charismatics and Pentecostals assume that what we have seen in the one hundred years since Azusa Street is the final move of God before the Second Coming. Kendall explains that this is not so and reveals that a movement of the Holy Spirit, which is one hundred times greater than anything we have seen—indeed the greatest since Pentecost—is about to unfold. A Heart for the City is a rich compendium of valuable information on city ministries written by people who are currently ministering in the city, including pastors, Christian school administrators, and directors of homeless missions. It includes many illustrations and case studies that will prove valuable to any who work in the city or who want to understand how to more effectively help in the city. There are 29 chapters, divided into the following seven parts: - Context and History - Biblical and Philosophical Foundations - Education and Training - Local Church Models - Ethnic Communities - Disenfranchised Subcultures - Children and Youth A Heart For the City is a unique treasure of encouragement for those serving in or those with a heart for the inner city. You will surely be blessed! David. Shepherd boy with slingshot, brave warrior, poet-musician, deceitful adulterer, repentant sinner, beloved king, "a man after God's own heart." David faced some desperate circumstances and some tough choices. So do you, day by day. In this book Rebecca Manley Pippert shows how you, like David, can choose the good, find hope and grow to be one who has a heart for God. Nurture the joy of your salvation with this beautiful, devotional commentary on Psalm 119. Developing a Heart for God will shepherd your soul to a newfound reliance on the living Bible. Psalm 119 is an acrostic poem using the Hebrew alphabet as a guide. With a passion for prayer, the author, Ron Auch, leads you in praying the words the Psalmist used to express devotion to God and his dependency on Him. Stunning full-color nature photos fill this remarkable and powerful study which offers: Deeply personal and relevant insight into the message of Psalm 119 A uniquely beautiful presentation of the Scripture Profound devotional commentary for you and your family Enrich your quiet time with this remarkable Bible study or share the experience with your family, friends, and church groups. Developing a Heart for God can also be shared as a life-giving gift. “The gift of Baptism is the gift of relationship.” As Joseph Hollcraft reflects in A Heart for Evangelizing, it is this relationship which orders our hearts, minds, and actions toward eternal union with a loving heavenly Father. Hollcraft offers reflections on holiness and evangelization—the cornerstones of the Christian vocation—and applies these themes to nearly every aspect of life. Personal, theological, and spiritual formation are ardently encouraged in A Heart for Evangelizing. A Heart for the Dropped Stitches by Janet Tronstad released on Jul 01, 2008 is available now for purchase. In the New Testament, Jesus is explicit in communicating God’s heart for children. Yet what does it look like for that heart to encounter the contextual realities of life in the twenty-first century? This book explores the theological implications and practical realities of ministry with children in a globalized world. Affirming eight core beliefs regarding the place of children in creation – that they are created with dignity and intended to be placed in families, cared for in community, advocated by society, secured in hope, affirmed in God’s church, included in God’s mission, and engaged in creation care – this book traces the impact of such far-reaching issues as displacement, climate change, human trafficking, persecution, and gender discrimination on childhood development. Written by over twenty contributors from around the world, each section roots its premise in contextual theology, examines the implications for praxis, provides a case study, and includes questions for discussion and reflection. Through each chapter the conversation around childhood development is broadened, prioritizing the experiences of children and practitioners to truly reflect the realities of our changing world. This is an excellent resource for all those concerned with the current risks facing children, especially among the world's most vulnerable populations, and what best practice looks like as the people of God work to bring God's heart, and hope, to children in their communities and beyond. A guide through the preparations for Passover, defining the observance not only as a religious and social ritual but also a spiritual journey, one that is repeated and refined through the course of our lives. In this study one finds the missiological inheritance of the first Reformed missiologist Johan Herman Bavinck in an organized and systematic form. The following topics are discussed: theology of religion, biblical theology of missions, elenctics (mission apologetics), and practical subjects such as inculturation, ecumenism and the race issue. The context in which Bavinck developed his vision is discussed in an explicit way. Special attention is given to the influence of Hendrik Kramer on Bavinck's development as well as the psychological dimension in his theologizing. The author evaluates the relevancy of Bavinck's missiology for the development of a Reformed missiology. The above is made complete by an extensive biographical sketch shedding light on the background and way of life of this Johan Herman Bavinck. Sheila Cragg knows of what she writes. She is the primary caregiver to her disabled and ailing husband and has also experienced some of life's deepest setbacks. But through all of those circumstances, she has drawn increasingly closer to the Lover of her soul and developed a rich, devotional lifestyle that she admits would never have happened otherwise. In A

Woman's Heart for God, Cragg shares her own life experiences and provides scriptural insights, creative ideas and interactive questions to help readers tailor their times with Him-whatever their circumstances-pinpointing how to remove any obstacles that are keeping them from intimacy with Christ.
